

Coach Storm's
2008-2009 Final
Cream of the Crop Club

"Tom's Top 40"

First Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Jackie Lyons	Reading	Senior	UNH
Guard	Natalie Gomez	Andover	Sophomore	Only a Soph
Forward	Mary Nwachukwa	Dighton-Rehoboth	Senior	BC
Forward	Katie Zenevitch	Central Catholic	Junior	"Verbal" BC
Center	Valerie Driscoll	Archbishop Williams	Junior	Only a Junior
"6 th Man"	Courtney Finn	Winthrop	Senior	Bentley

Jackie Lyons She is a terrific talent and a great kid. Missed her entire sophomore season with an ACL injury yet still managed to break the magic 1,000 point barrier this year. She topped the team in scoring with over 19 a game while handing out 6 assists. She led Reading to its 1st outright Middlesex League title in like 30 years and to the D2 North final before losing to AC. She was named to the Herald Dream team and Globe Super team this year and was a Globe All Scholastic as a junior. She will be a dream player for the UNH coaches the next 4 years with her ability, her work ethic, and her love of the game...Natalie Gomez was the ONLY returning Andover player with decent varsity experience this year and yet she led them to a terrific season. Her coach thinks she is the best player in the state. I don't go quite that far yet (Katie Z is still around) but she is a super talent who really works hard at her game. This Herald Dream Teamer "averaged" close to a triple double with 15 PPG, 10 assists, and 8 boards each night...and she defends with 5 steals a game...BC bound Mary Nwachukwa might be the best all-around player ever to step on the court at D-R...She graduates as the 2nd leading all time scorer at the school with 1,589 points for a career average of 21.5 PPG...she was named to the Globe Super team for the 2nd time, the Herald Dream Team, and the South Coast Today Super Team. She is heading to BC next year... ..Okay in 3 years of high school ball she's been to 2 state title games and this year 6'3" Katie Zenevitch was a part of the D1 state title team...all she did in the 2 biggest games of the year was go for 31 with 21 boards at the Garden and then for 28 with 25 rebounds in the state championship!...amazing numbers...She was named to the Herald Dream Team and has twice been a Herald All Scholastic and the Globe Super Team..and one more year to go before she's off to BC....The Archie's 6' 3" Val Driscoll pumped in about 20 a game this winter even though she was the focal point of every opponent's defensive schemes. She had 4 triple doubles this year and the one she had against Franklin was off the charts with 31 points, 17 boards, and 14 blocks...now that's a triple double!...She led her team back to the Garden for the 3rd straight season. This Herald All Scholastic is a physical force in the paint and is getting some serious D1 interest including Holy Cross...Winthrop's Courtney Finn ends her career by scoring over 21 a game this winter and more than 1,700 points for her career. She was a Herald All-Scholastic for the 3rd time and was also selected to the Globe Super Team in 2008...This prototype shooting guard should be a fixture for 4 years at D2 power Bentley.

Second Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Katy Howard	Medway	Senior	Assumption
Guard	Kate McDonald	Durfee	Junior	Only a Junior
Forward	Emily Trapp	Whitman-Hanson	Senior	Saint Rose
Forward	Amber Smith	Ipswich	Senior	Maine
Center	Kirsten Daamen	Pentucket	Senior	Central Conn.
"6 th Man"	Lauren Battista	Oliver Ames	Junior	Only a Junior

Katy Howard is a point guard who can shoot the rock scoring over 18 PPG this season while also seeing the floor as a point guard handing out 7 assists per contest. She has led her team in scoring and assists all 4 years of her high school career. She was named the Tri Valley League's 2009 MVP and both a Globe and Herald All Scholastic. She should have a great career the next 4 years at Assumption...Kate McDonald is as clever a point guard as there is around...she can score...around 14 a game...dish the rock as she had about 7 assists a game...She broke her hand at the end of the season and it was no coincidence that Durfee didn't win either of the games she missed...Emily Trapp is an athletic 6'1" kid who can score with the best of them. She was named to the Herald All Scholastic team for the 2nd time and a Globe All Scholastic this year as well. She scored over 1,600 points in her career. She will go down as perhaps the best player ever to suit up for W-H and is off to D2 Saint Rose in New York next fall...Amber Smith continued to fill up a stat sheet to the tune of 23 PPG including one contest where she hit for 43. She graduates as the all time leading scorer in Ipswich history and ended her career with over 1,800 points and also grabbing almost 1,100 boards. A Herald All-Scholastic the last 2 years Smith was named to both the Herald Dream Team and the Globe Super Team this year...She is heading to play up in lovely Orono for the D1 Maine Black Bears...Pentucket's Kirsten Daamen is 6'2" was simply the most feared inside defensive presence in the state...she also scored 12 PPG on the #4 ranked Pentucket club, one of the most balanced teams around...She was named a Herald All Scholastic this year and is off to D1 Central Connecticut next fall so now maybe high school opponents on the North Shore can drive to the basket again and not get dotted... Lauren Battista of OA is simply one of the best all-around players in the state...she scores at 23 points a game, rebounds, throws a great outlet pass, and best of all sees the floor and keeps her teammates all involved...the best part for Coach Laney Clement-Holbrook is this kid has another year left for OA...She was named a Herald All Scholastic this winter and whatever college gets her services when she graduates a year from now will be thrilled...could it be Bentley?

Third Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Mary Louise Dixon	Wellesley	Junior	Only a Junior
Guard	Kelsey Roberson	Arlington Catholic	Senior	Bentley
Forward	Jeanette Anderson	Lynn English	Senior	Caldwell
Forward	Meredith Soper	Arlington Catholic	Senior	Bryant
Center	Lauren Fiola	Durfee	Junior	Only a Junior
“6 th Man”	Jenna Roncarati	Bishop Feehan	Senior	Providence

Mary Louise Dixon helped lead Wellesley to the 2008 D2 state title and a 38 game win streak over 2 years that was snapped in this year’s state tourney in a brilliant OT game against Walpole...She is a “pass 1st” point guard who loves the game and one kid that I love to watch play...She was named a Herald All Scholastic this year as well...Kelsey Roberson stepped up big time her senior year scoring 18 a game and also playing the point and defending like all the AC kids do...She scored her 1,000th point late in the year...She was named a Herald All Scholastic and her great play helped lead AC to the Garden for the 1st time ever...Jeannette Anderson is just a beast on the glass...she just WANTS the ball when someone misses a shot and that is why D2 Caldwell College is thrilled she’s coming their way...She was named to the Globe Super Team and a Herald All Scholastic as well...She scored over 1,100 points and grabbed almost 1,300 rebounds for Coach Hogan and he will miss her greatly next year when she’s gone ...Merri Soper ends a great high school career with more than 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds. This kid sacrificed her scoring somewhat this year for the good of the AC team but her passing was better than ever as I had her for 8 assists when they beat Westford by 2 in the states...she will be sorely missed by Coach Brady as she takes her talents to D1 Bryant next fall... Lauren Fiola is a “double-double” machine as she has averaged close to 17 points and 12 boards a game for both her sophomore and junior seasons...This year she also played in pain for half the season with a partially torn calf but never missed a minute...Coach Tony Martin is thrilled to have her back for another year at Durfee...Feehan’s Jenna Roncarati is a D1 scholarship kid going to Providence...the problem is it’s for soccer not hoops...when star Amy Lepley went down with a season ending injury, Jenna put her team on her shoulders and scored at the time a career high 17 points that night...she ended up averaging over 19 a game with like 12 rebounds for the season...I saw her go for 23 with 15 boards against Katie Z and Central...She was named to both the Herald and Globe All Scholastic teams this year...sure wish this kid could find a way to play 2 sports in college as she’s an outstanding hoopster.

Fourth Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Blake Dietrick	Wellesley	Sophomore	Only a Soph

Guard	Nicole Boudreau	Andover	Freshman	Only a Frosh
Guard-Forward	Allie Beaulieu	Swampscott	Senior	Bates
Forward	Reilly Poirier	Cardinal Spellman	Senior	So. Conn.
Center	Sarah Collins	Weymouth	Senior	Babson
“6 th Man”	Brenna Gonsalves	Coyle Cassidy	Sophomore	Only a Soph

Blake Dietrick is a 3 sport star at Wellesley and this super soph can do it all on the hoops court as she pumps in close to 17 a game while also passing for another 5 hoops each contest and also leading the team in steals with over 3 a game...and she still has 2 more years of high school...Coach Cieri is smiling with the backcourt she has coming back next year...Nicole Boudreau made quite the splash this winter in the MVC...this fab frosh is one of the best shooters these eyes have seen in the last 10 years...she scored over 18 a game this year including scoring 27 in her 1st varsity game and another game where she hit nine 3's...she also sees the floor really well as I had her for 5 assists each time I saw Andover play...what a future this young star has in front of her...Swampscott's Allie Beaulieu is a shooter supreme who scored over 1,100 points in her career and this year shot over 46% on 3's...she has a super high bball IQ and an academic one as well as she's off to Bates next fall...Allie led the Big Blue to the D3 state title not only with her shooting as she averaged 9 assists and 8 boards each night as well...She was named to both the Herald and Globe All Scholastic teams this winter and will be greatly missed in Swampscott next year...Reilly Poirier is a kid who has always been totally team conscious and her example led a young Spellman club deep into the D3 South Tourney...She is a Herald All Scholastic and a 1,000 point scorer who averaged over 15 a game this year...she is heading to D2 Southern Connecticut next fall...Weymouth's Sarah Collins is about 6' 2" and one of the best shot blockers around averaging close to 5 blocks a game while also scoring over 17 PPG and pulling down 12 boards...This kid fills up a stat sheet and almost had a quadruple double this year when she scored 21, had 19 boards, 10 blocks and 8 steals in a state tourney game against Fontbonne...She was named a Herald All Scholastic and the Babson folks are thrilled she's heading their way next year...Brenna Gonsalves is 5' 10" and has a chance to be one of the best ever to play at Coyle Cassidy and possibly the best...She scored over 19 a game in this her sophomore year and absolutely flies on the court...kid also has a great handle so combined with her speed she is devastating in the open court on the break.

Fifth Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Kelsey Johnson	Apponequet	Sophomore	Only a Soph
Guard	Taylor Masaschi	Chatham	Senior	Brown
Forward	Siobhan Carnell	North Quincy	Senior	Not Known
Forward	Nicole Beresford	Marshfield	Sophomore	Only a Soph
Center	Courtney Donovan	Bourne	Senior	Assumption
“6 th Man”	Tara Nimkar	Swampscott	Senior	Undecided

All soph point guard Kelsey Johnson did this winter was score almost 18 a game with 6 boards, 4 assists and 3 steals per contest...she scored in double figures in all 21 games for the Lakers and has only missed doing that in 3 of her varsity games (out of 42) in her 2 year career...she's a good one...Chatham's Taylor Masaschi will graduate as the school's all time leading scorer with over 1,300 points in her high school career as she pumped in about 23 a game this winter...She is a star in the classroom as well as she is heading to the Ivy League to play the next 4 years at D1 Brown University...Siobhan Carnell of North Quincy is one I missed the boat on as she scored about 22 a game and led her club to a super season...Nicole Beresford is 6' tall with guard skills and 3 point range...this super soph was named to the Herald All Scholastic team and in only 2 years of high school ball has scored more than 900 points already averaging almost 21 PPG for her career...imagine?...2 more years to ...Bourne's Courtney Donovan is 6' 2" and can put the ball in the hoop as she scored close to 18 a game this year while averaging 26 a game in the state tourney and also pulling down 14 rebounds...She was named a Globe All Scholastic and will be sorely missed at Bourne next year but greatly welcomed by the coaches at Assumption...Swampscott's other star in its state title run was Tara Nimkar...this kid is that rare combo of strength and quickness that is hard to match...Tara pumped in 20 a game this year as the leading scorer for the Big Blue during this their state title year...She scored 1,377 career points and was also named to both the Globe and Herald All Scholastic teams.

Sixth Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Dyamond Gardner	Cambridge	Sophomore	Only a Soph
Guard	Becca Kimball	Weston	Senior	Wellesley
Guard	Erica Batchelder	Stoughton	Senior	Salem State
Forward	Brittany Obi-Tabot	Watertown	Junior	Only a Junior
Center	Lauren Kelleher	Dartmouth	Senior	Eastern CT

Cambridge's Dyamond Gardner had a terrific soph season scoring about 19 per contest...this kid has got game and has 2 more years to develop it even more and Coach Dana Elcott is glad she does...Weston's Becca Kimball now graduates as the all time leading scorer at the school...night in and night out she is the target of the other team's defense and yet for 4 years no one has been able to stop her...Wellesley College is getting a good one... Stoughton's Erica Batchelder really stepped up her game this winter to the tune of scoring over 22 a game including one tilt where she tickled the twine for 43...She was named the Hock League MVP...This scoring dynamo is off to Salem State next year and the coaches there are thrilled to get her...She's 6' with real long arms so plays bigger...more like a 6' 4" kid...Brittany Obi-Tabot is another "double-double" machine scoring over 18 a game and grabbing about 12 rebounds each contest...this Middlesex League All Star gets better all the time and has a terrific upside and still another year of high school ball to go...Dartmouth's 6' Lauren Kelleher really blossomed this winter...so much so that the South Coast Times named her their Player of the Year leading her club to its 1st state tourney berth in 4 years...Lauren scored almost 17 PPG while grabbing close to 13 rebounds...She is heading to D3 power Eastern Connecticut and they are glad she's coming...

Seventh Team

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Taryn O'Connell	Georgetown	Senior	Bates
Guard/Forward	Katerina Mallios	Winthrop	Senior	Babson
Forward	Christine Ganser	Needham	Junior	Only a Junior
Forward/Center	Rashidat Agboola	Methuen	Junior	Only a Junior
Center	Brianna Wilson	Lowell	Senior	Undecided

Taryn O'Connell graduates as the all time leading scorer at Georgetown with 1,526 points and also managed to grab more than 1,000 rebounds...She is headed to Bates to play with Allie Beaulieu in what shapes up as a good recruiting class for Coach Jim Murphy...Rina Mallios is 5' 10" and slashes to the hoop with the best of them getting hoops or drawing fouls...this kid will show in college that she also has 3 point range as well...the Winthrop Vikings will miss her when she graduates...Christine Ganser has already passed the 1,000 point barrier and still has another year to go for the Needham Rockets...she pumped in a little over 20 a game this winter and the 2 times I saw her play she hit for 31 and 25...kid can bang inside and still step behind the arc and knock down 3's...Rashidat Agboola is 6' tall and can sky with the best of them...She was named the D2 MVC Player of the Year and scored 20 PPG this winter...Brianna Wilson has had a great 4 year run for Lowell and she ended it by scoring over 17 a game and pulling down 10 boards each night for the #2 ranked team...

Injury Impacted Years

Position	Name	High School	Class	College Choice
Guard	Amy Lepley	Bishop Feehan	Senior	Holy Cross
Guard	Cat Carey	Reading	Senior	Mt. Holyoke
Guard	Jamie White	Masconomet	Senior	Undecided
Guard	Katie Awiszus	Acton Boxborough	Senior	Rochester?

I thought I would throw out these kids names for some special recognition as they were greatly impacted in their senior year by the injury bug.....Amy Lepley is simply one of the top 5 players in the state...unfortunately, we didn't get to see this super star all that much as she blew out her knee in mid-December and missed almost the entire year. Holy Cross has to be thrilled she's heading to Worcester for the next 4 years though...Reading's Cat Carey was having an excellent senior year on perhaps Reading's best team ever when she got mono forcing her to miss like the last 5 games and also the state tourney...you have to wonder how far Reading could have gone if she was healthy down the stretch as she was a huge contributor to Reading in the 2008 state tourney...Jamie White of Masco is so much fun to watch as her athleticism is off the charts...she had to be really frustrated as she got a very bad ankle sprain mid-way through the season, missed some games, but came back late and gave it her best shot...Acton Boxborough's Katie Awiszus is a terrific kid and one of those pass 1st point guards I like...poor kid tore her ACL last May, rehabbed really hard and got back to playing this year and then did her other knee against Westford late in the year.
